

FROM GLASGOW WOMEN'S LIBRARY

PROGRAMME

Free* and open to all!

*With the exception of the 'Make Your Own Charm' event on Saturday 3 March.

Join us to talk, think and make. Tea, coffee and a selection of delicious cakes, with plenty of vegan and gluten free options, will be available during all events!

The FROM GLASGOW WOMEN'S LIBRARY events programme is produced in partnership with Craft Scotland through their 'MEET YOUR MAKER' initiative. www.craftscotland.co.uk

Craft
SCOTLAND

THURSDAY 1ST MARCH

---

MAKE YOUR OWN HAT

with DONNA WILSON
11AM-1PM

Make your own hat (choose from a simple beanie or pussy hat). A special knitting workshop with celebrated designer DONNA WILSON marks the launch of her limited edition Book Cushion.

---

TALKING ABOUT MAKING: MATERIAL HISTORIES

3-4PM

DONNA WILSON, best known for her knitted creatures, textiles, homewares and furniture is in conversation with FRANKI FINCH a specialist in model making and model design work.

---

ARCHITECTURE IN CONVERSATION: VOICES OF EXPERIENCE

5:30-7:30PM

How can we occupy archives with different artefacts, technologies and people, in different spaces? Participate in short workshops around the Library's spaces to explore this question and celebrate FINCH & FOURACRE'S new sketchbook. We are delighted to welcome historian Diane Waters and conservation architect Fiona Sinclair.

SATURDAY 3RD MARCH

---

MAKE YOUR OWN CHARM

with JOY BC & RUTH EWAN
11AM-1PM, £30 (materials included)

Embrace your creativity! Design and carve your own charm from wax with jeweller JOY BC. After the workshop, a finished charm in precious silver is cast from your model and posted directly to you. The workshop will follow an introduction by the artist RUTH EWAN.

---

TALKING ABOUT MAKING: OBJECTS, MUSEUMS and FEMINIST MEMORY

2-3PM

Artist JASLEEN KAUR is fascinated by how social histories become embedded in materials and objects. Jasleen joins RUTH EWAN in conversation. Ruth's work explores histories of radical and utopian thought, bringing to light how we might live today.

---

FILMS by JASLEEN KAUR

3-4PM

A selection of short films by JASLEEN KAUR explore the layering of social histories, materials, objects, cooking and making.

THURSDAY 8TH MARCH
INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

---

MAKE YOUR OWN ORNAMENT

with SALLY HACKETT
11AM-1PM

Get messy! Working with ceramicist SALLY HACKETT, make your own rebellious ceramic ornament inspired by slogans, zines and other literature.

---

TALKING ABOUT MAKING: LANGUAGE, SLOGANS and GRAPHIC DESIGN

3-4PM

SALLY HACKETT combines ceramic forms and drawing to create lively narratives that consider social behaviours, taboos and norms. She is joined by graphic designer MAEVE REDMOND to discuss the power of slogans and typography as surface design on historic objects and politically inspired souvenirs.

---

FROM GLASGOW WOMEN'S LIBRARY SOUVENIR LAUNCH

5.30-7.30PM

Celebrate INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY with FROM GLASGOW WOMEN'S LIBRARY with a series of artist performances inspired by MAEVE REDMOND and KAISA LASSINARO'S READING LIST t-shirt range.